Technofocus

Security Essentials for Business Leaders

Course Overview   Duration - 1.5 Hours | Level - Beginner

This executive briefing is designed to help business and IT leaders understand the evolving security threat landscape and how Microsoft's Secure Future Initiative (SFI) and platform capabilities can help organizations stay protected. Learn about foundational security principles, key AI-related risks, shared responsibility models, and Microsoft's strategic approach to enabling resilient, compliant, and future-ready businesses.

Course Modules

Day 1

What we'll cover

Threat trends and observations

Country specific security regulations

The need for better security and how Microsoft is addressing it

Microsoft Secure Future Initiative (SFI)

Security – Zero trust and Foundational elements

Customer responsibility

Why and how can Microsoft help you?

Security recommendations for organizations

Securing data in the age of AI

Summary - Microsoft Security can help you achieve more

Continuing your Learning Journey